

All Saints

Jordanhill

Open Worship Evening

Wednesday 17 September, 7-9 pm

*Feel free to join us for the whole evening or just stay for a while.
Please speak to Sydney, Eileen Condie or Ian Ansdell if you'd like a lift.*

7.00-7.20

Silent meditation and Exposition of the Sacrament in the Lady Chapel

Christian meditation performed in the presence of the Eucharist outside of Mass is called Eucharistic meditation. It is intended to stimulate an awareness of the presence of Christ and is an invitation to spiritual communion with Him.

7.20-7.40

Poetry

Have you a favourite poem you'd like to read, or have someone read on your behalf? You're also welcome to say why it's important to you.

7.40-8.00

Coffee

8.00-8.20

Favourite Bible verses

As with poetry ... a passage which holds special significance for you.

8.20-8.40

Prayers and intercessions

Please consider what you'd like to pray for.

(Don't worry about praying aloud if you're more comfortable doing so silently.)

8.40-9.00

Compline

Compline or Night Prayer is the final church service (or office) of the day in the Christian tradition of canonical hours.

Open Worship is part of our Strategy for Growth, which involves every church in the Diocese of Glasgow and Galloway in Mission Action Planning for the year ahead and reviewing progress annually with the Bishop.